Contest Rules

All entries must be made with recycled products. This includes but is not limited to, glass, cans, bottles, old clothes, papers, and plastics.

Participants may enter into all categories however, one recycled piece per category.

Crafts: Yard ornaments, decorations, anything "crafty" out of things that would be thrown away.

Toys: May or may not be used for play. May be models of something.

Furniture: From cushions made out of plastic bottles to pallet furniture and beyond.

Clothes and Accessories: Not just hand-me-downs. Creativity in recycling and repurposing clothing. E.G. Making a purse out of blue jeans; making a vest out of an old coat; morphing an old shirt into a nightgown; turning Daddy-o's old overalls into a feminine casual outfit. Includes jewelry.

Arts: Think Tin Man. Objects of art made with refuse.

Miscellaneous (anything else) - Mosquito catchers out of 2 liter cola bottles; and the like. The list is endless!

Judges will be judging on creativity, appearance, time required, cost (as efficient as possible), originality, and availability of materials.

All creations must be set-up at Phoenix Park between 10:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m., June 18th.
